Superintendent Report/Director of Operations combined report

There have been 3500 missing assignments turned in! Remarkable work from students and staff.

An abbreviated graduation ceremony was carried out during the pandemic closure, and it went well for what we were allowed to do.

Mrs. Ringer did a great job of putting it together.

Mr. Roberts provided update on the mascot conversion and discussed his request for state funding to assist with the expense.

In Capital Project, the Wall Replacement Project is moving forward, and he expects the building will be available for us to return to in-person board meetings in August.
